New Business:

1. Annual Dinner: (Kingsbery, Gormley & Klassen) Date is 5 October 2012 at Klemmers. Starting time is 1730 hours. Reservation has been secured with a deposit. Meal selections pending. Cost per member was estimated to be close to the $27.50 from last year. Invitations will be sent to membership in July. Administrative Assistant will send labels to Gormley in June. Patricia Meyer has donated $75.00. Additional donations and/or items for a raffle was made.

2. Brewers Baseball Game: Mr. Sperl reports that this will not occur this season. The demand for tickets for Saturday evening games has made it impossible to arrange this event. Several members spoke of the availability of tickets which the Brewers set aside for Veterans. The following members, Ms. Rumler and Ms. Gormley, have volunteered their assistance with ticket availability for games scheduled for 5 and 18 July and 1 and 8 August. Ms. Kingsbery has volunteered to explore the availability for gathering at a restaurant on Bluemound Road which has bus transportation to Miller Park.

New Business (Unfinished Business/Good of the Order):

1. Mr. Richtmyre reported on the dispute between a housing association and a Medal of Honor awardee. An e-mail has been sent to the membership on this matter.

2. Ms. (SGM) Horowitz wishes to send her regards to the membership. She is unable to attend meetings.

3. Members want to determine the feasibility to schedule more parties and to lessen the number of membership meetings. Friday and Saturday evenings were favored. It was proposed, but deferred, for the Friday or Saturday weekend, before or after the Thanksgiving Day holiday weekend. (Mr. Sperl)

4. Heritage Days will be held at the Woods VA Center on 2 and 3 June. (Kingsbery)

5. Memorial Day Parade is scheduled for Monday, 28 May.

6. The next Honors Flight is scheduled for 2 June. Stars & Stripes is holding an event at Miller Park on 17 August at 1700 hours. A replica of the World War II Memorial will be on display. Tickets are $10.00 each.

7. Next meeting: 20 October 2012 (tentative).
